

Editor's Comment:

Please find the attached file with corrections carried out. RED highlighted one to be retained and YELLOW colored one needs correction. Final decision is pending as one more revised draft required to review.

There are references cited in the text et al are non italics in discussion chapter. Follow standard guide lines.

Club the tables and figures in the chapter Results and Discussion at appropriate places as in text. Reference chapter not clearly organised as some journal names are abbreviated and others are as such.

Follow standard guidelines of journal.

I gone through critically with each word. The quality and standard of the journal to be maintained.

It needs one more review after following the above comments.
