

Editor's Comment:

Regarding the Work JERR 89281, I reviewed the first version, the refereeing and the new version. I see that the authors have greatly improved the new version. But in the new version, references [7], [11], as well as [14-17], do not appear in the text, which must be corrected. Likewise, I advise that at least one reference from the years 2020-2022 be included. I also attach the latest version with some spelling errors highlighted in green.

Corrections should be made as soon as possible and promptly returned for review.
