Minor REVISION comments	In the Introduction section in the first paragraph the author(s) state "Along with this , contemporary children's throwing ability has also decreased remarkably." There needs to be a reference for this statement. Also, in the Introduction section in the second paragraph, the author(s) state, "In short, children's choices of games has changed greatly." Here again, there needs to be a reference. Lastly, in the Conclusion section, I think it would be wise to add a sentence in regards to the importance PE teachers have in teaching the throwing skill to their young students. It doesn't have to be long at all.
