PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	The article should be corrected by a native English-speaking person. Grammatical errors, formulation and typing errors should also be corrected. In many parts the article can not be followed and understood. For many thoughts, views there should be some references, articles cited. Articles dealing with the effects of climate change on psychological matters should be discussed in more detail, Covid-19 behavior also. The whole paper should be organized more (e.g. defining key concepts in the introduction, discussing PTSD, psychosomatic disorder depression, anxiety, etc. and connecting them to the key concepts of the paper; the authors should gradually build up the topics on mental health and climate change, mental health and Covid-19, etc.). In the mirror of discussing Covid-19 the authors should think about changing the title. The objective of the paper should not be put at the end. There are some references at the end that are not cited in the paper. Major reorganization should be implemented and the paper should be rewritten with more concrete aims and goals and more logically structured.
