

Review Form 1.6

Journal Name:	Asian Journal of Education and Social Studies
Manuscript Number:	Ms_AJESS_89008
Title of the Manuscript:	Pala'wan "Sudsugid" stories and their Viability in developing Story Books for Elementary IPED (Indigenous People Education) Learners
Type of the Article	Original Research Article

General guideline for Peer Review process:

This journal's peer review policy states that NO manuscript should be rejected only on the basis of 'lack of Novelty', provided the manuscript is scientifically robust and technically sound. To know the complete guideline for Peer Review process, reviewers are requested to visit this link:

(<https://www.journalajess.com/index.php/AJESS/editorial-policy> )

PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	In the introduction part, it mainly summarizes the research status of indigenous culture in recent years, which can be divided into several aspects; The relatively long-standing government documents and protective measures can be simplified and explained as a background.
Minor REVISION comments	The overall structure of the article is relatively clear, indicating that the author has preliminarily mastered the basic norms of thesis writing. However, the logical structure of the article still needs further efforts.  The core of the thesis is that the author can compile relevant stories into books. The third part lists some Aboriginal stories, which are very good. It is suggested to add the feasibility of compiling these stories into books later.
Optional/General comments	This is a very good topic, and I especially like it. From a worldwide perspective, regional, national and traditional cultures are gradually declining. The prevailing industrial culture and its way of life are popular. Maybe this is the law of history. It is very meaningful to protect and inherit this local culture. In fact, governments of all countries are also strengthening the protection, but it is obvious that the protection is not enough. Therefore, this topic is very good.  I hope to see this paper, but I also hope to see the final results, that is, books on Aboriginal stories and more in-depth, systematic and specialized research on Aboriginal living habits, characters, lifestyles, etc; For example, the historical changes of Aboriginal languages. It is also hoped that the author can continue his research in this field throughout his life.

PART 2:

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Are there ethical issues in this manuscript?	(If yes, Kindly please write down the ethical issues here in details)

Reviewer Details:

Name:	Zhu Guohua
Department, University & Country	Shanghai University of Finance and Economics, Zhejiang College, China