Optional/General comments	The current study's findings, titled "Examining the socio-economic factors influencing sustainable food production in arid and semi-arid lands of elgeyo marakwet county, Kenya," are both fascinating and useful. Readers of the Journal, as well as other scholars working on this topic around the world, may be interested in this publication. The findings and discussion are well-written, with the exception of a few minor typos. This work, in my opinion, deserves to be published with minor revision and consideration of the following points:
