Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments	-The theme is very good, not many linguists do this kind of research, because of the limited equipment in the research, but unfortunately this paper is too technical, so it makes the reader uncomfortable reading it. The author's words are so lacking, that it looks like they're just combining quotes from references, without adding words that connect them. -Introduction is too short, because it does not include in detail, what is the urgency in choosing the intonation of the spokespersons from the ministry of health about covid-19 in Saudi Arabia
Optional/General comments
