Compulsory REVISION comments	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The font style and font size should be the same from beginning to end2. The scientific name of the plant should be written in italics both in the text as well as in the reference section.3. References in the text and in the reference section are not totally the same style and it makes the paper useless and needs major revision. For example, in the text the reference is written in the form of (Sindrup et al., 1995) but in the reference section it is written by using numbering which is completely mismatch and leads me to decide do not accept for publication. If you read your review it is very difficult to understand the references you have used for your manuscript.4. Reference writing in the text is not uniform and needs major revision.
