Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments
Optional/General comments	First of all, congratulations for the work done. Very good text which has a good explanation about historical context and the general concept of method (ANN). But, I would like suggest that, your work can bring a large utility if,a "Practical example" of functionality of this tool (Artificial Neural Network) is described step-by-step. One example which the readers could replicate in practice. Best regards!
