PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	The meaning of some acronyms needs to be made clear the first time they mentioned eg RDF, OWL AND SPARQL, W3C etc The most recent cited article in the paper is four years ago. Many things transpired between this four years. The work will capture the attention of readers if some of these literatures are updated
Minor REVISION comments	Proof read the document for minor grammatical errors
Optional/General comments	The work is good. It attempts to solve problems related to the database and information retrieval from three servers in Niger Delta University. Harmonising data from these servers could be challenging if the know-how is absent or inadequate. The researcher demonstrated the possibility of accessing different data/information despite the number of servers and platform the "technology" was created
