Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments	-There needs to be an affirmation, this research uses a qualitative type with a literature review approach. although in the method and abstract there is mention of secondary data collection -It is better if the books and journals that are used as references are taken from publications for a maximum of 10 years, so that there is an update. because the condition of Nigeria today is different from 20 years ago, which was familiar with violent politics -Writings that rely on literature studies generally give rise to many opinions and writings in the form of quotes, and historical facts on how the history of political conditions in Nigeria has ended in violence. This paper has revealed many historical facts, so that it can lead to the author, that in Nigeria there needs to be a national awareness that is built. And the solution from this paper has been tried to be described in the form of a recommendation, which demands changes on all fronts. Exploiting ethnicity in Nigerian politics will further sharpen the seeds of division, one of which needs to be sharpened according to the results of this recommendation is how to build a better Nigerian economy, so that the younger generation is more focused on efforts to improve welfare.
Optional/General comments	- For a journal article, this article is quite long, so it is necessary to consider shortening it. -Learn from conditions in Indonesia, which has thousands of ethnicities, but a culture of violence can reduce itself. Because the focus of the people began to split into the economy and earlier only on the political field alone.
