Compulsory REVISION comments	This current study presents an interesting approach, obtained from a different angle, regarding the place and role of women in managerial activity. The evaluation of the women professional efficiency through the prism of the owning has often highlighted superior results compared to men. The share of women's associations tends to increase in the overall economic picture. Women are not impulsive in business, they are self-critical, realistic but most importantly they are human and empathetic which allows them to achieve superior results.
