Compulsory REVISION comments	The relationship between redundancy of humidification on immunologic compromise is insufficient. Although the authors provide a reference suggesting some theoretical explanation for Covid19 relating to mucosal immunity-there is no elaboration or any evidence on how temperature and humidity affect immunity
Minor REVISION comments	The graphs about Whan are very interesting yet- the data is very condensed and difficult to follow and understand for the common reader. It would be useful to reformat the graphs so the message of the authors are clearer.
Optional/General comments
