Compulsory REVISION comments	This is a very insightful research conducted by the researchers. I enjoyed reading the manuscript. I did find the manuscript easy to read, generally well written and succinct. The Tables and Figures are well positioned in the manuscript and appropriately used by the authors to illustrate their key findings. Some low points regarding the manuscript. The authors failed to reference in either in the Result nor Discussion sections any of the Tables and Figures that are reported in the manuscript. I also noticed that The superscripts for "OD" and "highest OD" are not identified properly and need to be corrected.
