PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	Breast feeding has been considered essential due to its nutritional benefits and as shown by the review conducted by the authors of the article, due to the benefits it can provide by improving the immune defenses in infants against infections such as the one that has recently arisen induced by the SARS-COV2 virus. The authors showed initially the global aspects of the infection induced by the virus, and later the importance of breast milk in the immune defense both at the humoral and cellular levels. Reviews of this type are particularly important because, reinforce the importance of promoting breastfeeding for at least the first year of life or the first two years of infant life.
Minor REVISION comments	Improve quality of Fig. 2
Optional/General comments
