They presented paper as if the briquettes are just produced directly without processing them to become suitable smokeless fuels. They did not indicate what makes the briquettes green energy technology. There are processes involved in briquette production that create emissions. So this should be highlighted in the paper. The expression "briquette technology" was not properly used in some sentences. Note: Briquette technology involves all the processes in producing briquette fuels.
