Compulsory REVISION comments	-
Minor REVISION comments	-
Optional/General comments	I accept publication of this paper as: 1- The findings revealed that major marketers complied more than the independent marketers and the NNPC. 2- It further revealed that the environmental regulations followed by a successful implementation and monitoring, will improve petrol stations level of compliance with environmental laws and regulations. Finally: The study recommends the need to reassure the petrol station operators that environmental legislation and environmental regulation requirements are not punitive, but guidelines to help conserve the environment.
