Compulsory REVISION comments	Dear Ladies and Gentlemen, Dear Journal-Team, The manuscript 'Therapeutic approach of traditional naturopathy approach of hydrotherapy douches' summarizes the various utilizations and techniques of hydrotherapeutic douches. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The title could be changed to 'A review of hydrotherapeutic douches and its utilization in traditional natural medicine'.</li> <li>2. An innovative Research Journal discusses exhausting reviews of current research. Here a section 'Effectivity of hydrotherapeutic douches' could be introduced.</li> <li>3. To form the manuscript as clear and illustrative as possible, tables could be used for example for the effects and benefits of hydrotherapy or the classification, physiological effects and therapeutic uses of douches.</li> <li>4. For a clear section order, the section 'General review of hydrotherapy' should be placed before the section of 'Classification and application of hydrotherapeutic douches'. And the section 'General applications of hydrotherapeutic douches' can be presented together with the last one.</li> <li>5. A table with a listing of the various forms of hydrotherapy would be helpful.</li> <li>6. Before publication, the manuscript has to be reviewed again for language improvement.</li> </ol> Sincerely,
