The discussion of cholesterol link in this article is patchy and the discussion on lipid link is more elaborative pushing the cholesterol link down. The information from reference numbers 3 and 6 are not at all elaborated. The authors do not substantiate their stand satisfactorily. 2. The process of selection of studies for review can be represented in a schematic picture. The mention of reference numbers 14 – 20 leave the readers in dark when the information from those articles are not provided.
