Compulsory REVISION comments	Authors conducted a study on the role of education on the stress of caregivers of patients with dementia. They found that the education program had a positive impact on caregivers' burden. The study is interesting, and the topic deserves to be further investigated. I suggest reformulating the manuscript to highlight their results as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -The introduction section should contain some more specific indication about the diagnostic process of dementia (please cite: Limongi et al DOI:10.1007/s40520-018-1032-8; Bonanni et al DOI: 10.1007/s10072-016-2713-8; Borroni et al DOI: 10.1007/s10072-014-2033-9). -The methods section should include a paragraph containing a description of the education program - I furthermore suggest emphasizing the main results in the Discussion, describing them in the first part of the section
Minor REVISION comments
Optional/General comments
