|-------------------------------------|---|---|
| Compulsory REVISION comments | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. There are several grammatical and mechanical errors throughout the text and abstract. Please correct them appropriately. For example, start the sentences with capital letter and don not start the sentences with digits.</li> <li>2. Results section of the abstract has not been written well. Please explain the findings in a more comprehensive way without mentioning all details about statistical analyses.</li> <li>3. Write the aim of the study at the end of introduction section.</li> <li>4. Please explain statistical analyses including statistical tests in the methodology section.</li> <li>5. It is better to explain the main findings of each figure concisely in the results.</li> <li>6. The text of the results part has not been written appropriately. Instead of writing statistical details, you can mention a brief sentence including the main idea and explain the details in the table.</li> <li>7. Your sample size seems to be relatively low to gain accurate results. What is your sample size calculation method?</li> <li>8. It is recommended to evaluate some other factors of the patients in results. It is difficult to gain certain conclusion regarding limited data assessed.</li> </ol> |   |
