Also author should refer to latest report for disease burden due to malaria No need for life cycle diagrams of malaria and leishmania parasite Need of the article is not explained by author at the end of introduction Discussion: Author should reframe "Death rates because of the normally nonlethal P. yoelii raised during concurrent infections [11], suggested owing to sequestration of leishmania amastigote antigens from presentation [6]."What author wants to convey in this line is not clear .
