Compulsory REVISION comments	This paper is generally interesting in offering an idea of the effectiveness of IPOMOEA STAPHYLINA ROEM. Overall, the structure of this paper is in good condition. However, there are some issues that need to be addressed. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Please, check the grammar. I suggest using effective sentences with standard grammar.2. To what extent have previous studies been carried out? This should be stated to know the novelty of this research.3. Ipomoea staphylina Roem. & Schult. was collected manually from the local area? Where and how? a detailed explanation of the location will clarify the bias of the object of this study.4. The results section, I suggest presented in a table that may be very useful.5. Reference sources need updating, I see most of them are too old. I would suggest that in the discussion or in the conclusion, the author would make it clearer by stating the implications of the research results.
