Compulsory REVISION comments	The title should be revised. There is no comparison between natural and chemical cross-linking agents. Only natural agents are investigated in this study. The protocols in group IIB and IIIB are the same. The results shouldn't repeat the presented data in the table. The claim that Proanthocyanidin causes discoloration should be backed up with an appropriate reference. In the conclusion, change " Within the limitations of the my study" with " Within the limitations of the current study" The reference list is full with outdated sources.
