Compulsory REVISION comments	The abstract does not talk about the methodology adopted at all. Is the research based on gender difference on the perception of COVID-19 and if not, why can't he look at other demographic information? Methodology: The method used was not accounted for, it was just based on the data collection technique. The author should talk more on the way he obtained his value for a lay man understanding and an upcoming researcher. He should be elaborate on the test of association used i.e., Chi-square. Briefly....
Minor REVISION comments	The author need to watch the spacing and the grammatical errors
Optional/General comments	The research work is generally okay for publication.
